by kirkar | Mar 13, 2018 | Uncategorized |

Last week we attended in Eskisehir (Turkey) the Kick Off Meeting of the an important European Project that CEIPES is taking part in together with other 6 European Partners.

The Project, Development of Education Modules for Railway Passenger Service Systems – DEM-Rail-PSS– (Erasmus Plus, KA2, Adult Education) aims to improve the quality service of the railroad service between Turkey and the EU, thanks to the creation of ad-hoc modules that will be elaborated by all partners.

The leading partner of the Project is the Anadolu University from Eskisehir (Turkey). The consortium is made up by two Turkish national entities Tcdd Tasimacilik A.S Genel Mudurlugu and Ilksem; the UK-Certified Knowledge Association of London and the EURO-CERT Academy of Berlin.

During the meeting the partners focused on the next steps of the project implementation and on the setting of the next meetings, the first of which will be in Berlin in December 2018.
